Dated 29th July,'50.

To
The Chief Secretary to the Government,
Government of Mysore,
Bangalore,

Through
The Revenue Commissioner in Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

I write to draw your kind attention to my letter dated 7th July'50 in which I had requested for some leave in continuation of joining and preperation time. In case it is not possible to sanction the leave I may kindly be intimated immediately so that I can get ready to get back.

As I have to move back along with my family, I will need some extra money for railway fare etc., I shall be highly obliged if you can kindly sanction an advance of one months pay to be recovered as usual in three monthly instalments. As there is hardly enough time for me send my bills and getting them cashed after pre-audit etc, I shall be grateful for an early sanction of the advance.

Thanking you,

yours faithfully,

(C.S.Seshadri)
